Identification Required to Open a New Account

Generally, the Bank requires all identity verification to be conducted prior to account opening or at the time a new signatory is added to an account. A bank need not establish the accuracy of every element of identifying information obtained, but it must verify enough information to form a reasonable belief that it knows the true identity of the customer.

Yes

Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) with photo.

U.S. Military ID Common Access Card (with photo).
